

PACIFIC RAILROAD INDEBTEDNESS

A bill is now before Congress to secure the payment of the indebtedness of the Union Pacific and Central Pacific Railroads to the Government. This indebtedness was assumed by the Government when the roads were being built. The Government guaranteed the payment of bonds issued to the companies at maturity with interest payable annually, the Government being secured by a first mortgage on the roadbed, lands and rolling stock of the companies. Subsequently, by Act of Congress, the railroad companies were authorized to issue first mortgage bonds, equal in amount to those secured by the Government, the latter taking a second mortgage as security. A portion of these bonds, those issued when the first sections of the road were completed, will become due in a year or two, and as the companies say they cannot redeem the bonds at maturity, it devolves upon the Government to foreclose the mortgages, to do which it will necessarily have to redeem the first mortgages, or make new arrangements with the companies to secure the payment of their indebtedness, and this is the object of the bill now before Congress.

As the writer, who relies wholly upon memory, understands it, the Government guaranteed the payment of Central Pacific bonds to the amount of $16,000 per mile of road built in the valleys; $32,000 per mile in the foothills, and $48,000 per mile in the mountains. These bonds were issued for greenbacks, worth at the time from one-third to one-half their face value in coin, and as security for their payment the Government holds a second mortgage on the property of the company. A first mortgage for a like amount is held by private individuals, and this the Government must redeem to acquire possession of the road, which would cost it twice the amount of the present indebtedness, or about four times what the road could now be duplicated for. As the public would not sanction the purchase of the road on such terms, Congress must make other and such terms as the company will accept to secure the payment of the debt, because if the terms are not acceptable to the company the road may be sold under the first mortgage and the Government given the alternative of purchasing it or losing the entire debt. A dispatch published in yesterday's JOURNAL gives the terms which the Union and Central Pacific Companies are willing to accept. The Union Pacific desires to have its debt refunded, in bonds bearing interest at two and one-half per cent. per annum and payable in one hundred years. The Central Pacific, by reason of its prospects not being so good as those of the Union Pacific, asks through its President that the interest on its bonds be reduced to two per cent. per annum.

It is to be hoped, for the interest of Nevada, that the question will be settled by the present Congress. As it now is, with a heavy debt nearing maturity, the Central Pacific Company is not disposed to incur much expense in the development of the resources of Nevada, but with that debt settled satisfactorily, self interest, if nothing more, would induce it to endeavor to instill new life into the country through which it runs, and assist materially in developing the mineral, agricultural and grazing resources of the State by encouraging those industries in every possible way.

DISBANDED AND DISGRACED.

There is a possibility of trouble with the Indians in Nevada and as our paternal and considerate Government, with a surplus in the Treasury, millions of which was derived from the profits of silver coinage, of which our bullion producers were defrauded by infamous legislation, has removed every regular soldier from the State, the people were relying on the State militia to protect them from the savages in the event of an outbreak. That they were leaning on a weak reed, in one instance at least, is proved by the conduct of the Tuscarora Guards, whose officers, according to the Elko papers, resigned and disbanded the company at the first intimation that they would be called to arms to protect settlers from the Indians. This company was uniformed, armed and equipped without expense to the members, and furnished with an armory at an expense of $900 a year to the tax payers. It is provided by law that they should receive pay for every day's service to the State and be supplied with rations and transportation free, yet from cowardice, or some other dastardly motive, they disbanded the moment there is even a remote possibility of their being called into active service. Fortunately the other military companies of the State are composed of more patriotic and manly material, and many of the old settlers, who in days gone by fought the Indians without pay or assistance from the National Government, are yet, should the occasion require it, able to take the field and protect their homes and families from the Indians.

The Legislature, which is to convene next Monday, should, for the honor of the State, pass a special act, ordering the name of the Tuscarora Guards stricken from the muster roll, and should it ever be necessary to refer to that company officially, designate it as cowardly Co. E, First Brigade, Nevada National Guard.

Dempsey Knocked Out at New Orleans.

Special to the Journal.

NEW ORLEANS, January 14.—The great middle weight fight between Jack Dempsey and Robt. Fitzsimmons occurred at the Olympic Club to-night and resulted in a victory for the New Zealander in thirteen rounds.

Fitzsimmons set the pace throughout the fight and there was hardly a time during the thirteen rounds when he did not seem to be a sure winner.

In the first round Fitz followed Dempsey around the ring and got in once with his right. Jack got in two lefts and avoided a right by ducking; Fitz seemed too anxious and made many mistakes. It was evident Dempsey was going to make a waiting fight.

In the second round Fitz was after his man again. He landed right and left on Dempsey's head and Dempsey kept away. There was then some exchange, Dempsey getting in two good body blows. Jack was next knocked against the ropes by a right-hander on the head. Fitz was running after his man trying to land a knockout blow but Dempsey made use of the limits of the ring.

In the third round Dempsey was still running away and laughing. Fitz knocked him down and then chased him all over the ring. Dempsey was groggy and was ducking and cowering. Fitz looked a winner all over as Dempsey seemed unable to hold his own.

In the fourth round Fitz was still forcing and Dempsey clinching. Suddenly Dempsey seemed to recover and made the pace. He scored with both left and right, but Fitz soon took the aggressive again. Jack landed one or two good face blows and it began to look as if he had a chance.

In the fifth round Dempsey tried for Bob's stomach and missed, the latter got a good right on Dempsey's head. Jack turned around once or twice while running away and got home a good swinging left, always clinching afterwards.

The sixth, seventh and eighth rounds were all in Fitz's favor. Dempsey occasionally landed, but Fitz forced the fighting throughout. Dempsey was knocked down again in the seventh round and in the eighth he was bleeding badly.

In the ninth round Fitz continued to do the rushing. Jack occasionally recovered and got in good left handers on the face and body, but Fitz only smiled and kept after his man, mercilessly battering him badly.

Dempsey was very weak in the tenth round. He ducked down a blow and held one of Fitz's hands in his. There were cries of foul, but the claim was not allowed.

In the eleventh round Jack was growing still weaker. His face was bloody, and a right-hander sent him down. He was dazed and bleeding, and feebly staggered towards Fitz. He was cruelly knocked down again, but still got up. Some one in his corner threw up the sponge, but he would not have it. He staggered towards Fitz, and the latter hit him as the round closed.

In the twelfth round Dempsey was knocked down three times. His seconds wanted him to give up, but he insisted upon fighting. The gong saved him from a knockout, but when it sounded for the next round, Fitz walked over to Dempsey's corner and punched him out. Jack was not able to rise and the fight was given to the New Zealander amid the greatest excitement. Dempsey was badly disfigured.

The Behring Sea Question.

Special to the Journal.

OTTAWA, January 14.—Sir John Thompson, Minister of Justice, says the application by the owners of the Canadian sealing vessel W. P. Sayward to the United States Supreme Court for a writ of prohibition was undertaken with the co-operation of the Canadian Government and the full approval of the British Government, and that if the application is granted the United States can no longer attempt to exclude the vessels of other countries from Behring Sea.

News from the Orient.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 14.—The steamship Oceanic arrived to-day from China via Honolulu. On December 9th a farewell dinner was given at the Grand Hotel of Yokohama in honor of C. R. Greathouse, formerly U. S. Consul General to Japan, prior to his departure for Corea, where he will act as advisor to the King. He left Yokohama on the following day for Seoul. G. H. Seidmore remains as Acting Consul General.

A sharp shock of earthquake, doing no damage, however, was felt at Tokio, December 11th.

The British steamer Namoa was attacked by pirates on December 8, about forty-five miles from Hongkong. The pirates were eighty-five in number and asked to be taken on board as passengers. While the officers were at lunch they were attacked and Captain Pocock and the quartermaster of the vessel were shot and killed, as was also Captain Peterson, the light-house keeper at the "Lamocks," who was on board. After getting about $30,000 from the vessel and its two hundred Chinese and six European passengers, the pirates ran the steamer to within about five miles of the shore and signalled to their partners. Six large junks put out and received the booty, after which the pirates decamped. The steamer, which had all her boats smashed and was otherwise damaged, was taken back to Hongkong by the chief officer.

What Salisbury Claims.

Special to the Journal.

LONDON, January 14.—The Press Association has information to the effect that the British Government approves of the appeal made to the U. S. Supreme Court. Lord Salisbury has always contended that the laws of the United States did not make Behring Sea mare clausum. The case now before the highest Court in the United States will be argued on the international question whether any power is entitled to claim fishing rights outside of the three mile limit. The British Government hopes the Supreme Court will, in its decision on the question, show there never has been any exclusive rights given to the United States to close Behring Sea to other powers.

House Proceedings.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, January 14.—The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Army Appropriation bill.

After some debate the Committee rose and the Army bill passed.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the District of Columbia bill, but little was done. The Committee rose and the House adjourned.

To Advise Salisbury.

Special to the Journal.

NEW YORK, January 14.—A Herald special says the British Minister will cable Lord Salisbury at length concerning the feeling in this country caused by the Canadian Minister's application to the Supreme Court in the Behring sea case, and it would hardly cause surprise if the Judges of the Court granted the application made by Great Britain's counsel to dismiss the case.

Parleying With General Miles.

Special to the Journal.

PINE RIDGE, January 14.—This morning Little Wound, Little Hawk, Crow Dog and Old Osage came in from the hostiles and are having a talk with General Miles. The other chiefs are expected to come in. Colonel Corbin has announced that the Chiefs have agreed to surrender their arms and that the latter will probably be brought in to-night or to-morrow and be tagged.

Militia Ordered Home.

Special to the Journal.

OMAHA, January 14.—On the assurance of General Miles that no more danger to settlers is anticipated, the four companies of militia stationed on the frontier were ordered home to-day. There are still thirteen companies in the field, but they will be ordered home by the end of this week unless more trouble occurs.

Koch's Lymph.

Special to the Journal.

BERLIN, January 14.—It is announced that Professor Koch will publish to-morrow the ingredients which enter into the composition of his lymph. It is ascertained from authentic sources that it produces chemical processes in the body, and that it probably belongs to a group of unaluminous compounds.

British Army Officers Coming to Fight Indians.

E. J. Baldwin's suit in the United States Circuit Court at Los Angeles against the Southern Pacific Railroad for damages caused by the burning of his wheat crop by a spark from a locomotive was decided against him, it being shown that the spark was from a Santa Fe locomotive. A motion for a new trial on the ground that if the fire was caused by the lessee the lessor is liable was refused. The position of counsel for the railroad company that the lessor was not liable for the acts of the lessee unless the relationship and facts are pleaded was sustained.

The scheme for carrying tourists to the top of the Jungfrau by means of a pneumatic tube is ingenious if it be not practicable. If this plan be carried out, fancy the tourist of the twentieth century reading with uplifted eyebrows the perilous feats of Alpine climbing by Whimper and others, who spent several days in accomplishing the ascent, which he makes in as many minutes.

WHAT IS SCROFULA

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or swellings; which causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors," which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can It Be CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. "My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofula from the time she was 2 months old till she became six years of age. Lumps formed in her neck, and one of them after growing to the size of a pigeon's egg, became a running sore for over three years. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla, when the lump and all indications of scrofula entirely disappeared, and now she seems to be a healthy child." J. S. CARLILE, Nauright, N. J.

Dr. Dawson and L. D. Folsom paid Carson a visit yesterday.

Silver bullion is quoted in the New York market at $1.06 per ounce.

Senator Charles Kaiser, of Churchill county, arrived in town yesterday.

Dr. P. Harmony came up from Washoe yesterday and returned last night.

J. F. Condon, Superintendent of the Verdi Mill Company, visited Reno yesterday.

J. D. Kersey, County Assessor of Ormsby, was a passenger for the Bay last night.

Mrs. Toler and family have returned from a visit to San Francisco and Sacramento.

It was snowing very hard at Wells last evening with prospects good for a continuation of the storm.

D. M. Glover and wife came in from Sierra Valley last evening and will remain a few days in Reno.

The thermometer indicated 25 degrees below zero at Elko last Sunday, and 17 degrees below on Monday.

Verdi is a growing town; there are three or four families desirous of locating there but are unable to obtain houses at present.

Senator George S. Sawyer and Assemblyman W. R. McFadden of Lincoln county are in town on their way to the Capital.

The Southern Pacific Company has made a special rate of $6 per ton for wheat in carload lots from Wells and intermediate points to Reno.

The installation of the officers of Truckee Lodge No. 14, Reno Lodge No. 19, and Rebekah Degree Lodge No. 7, I. O. O. F., will take place at the Pavilion this evening.

Rival Republican factions, each fighting for control of the House, are making things lively in the Colorado Legislature.

Charges of bribery have been made and an investigating committee appointed.

The severe cold weather and snow storms in eastern Elko has the effect of breaking up the ghost dance and dispersing the Indians, who announce, however, that they will commence dancing at Battle Mountain in ten days.

A recent mining discovery in Winnemucca Mountain, which the owners have named the Gold-bug, is, the Silver State says, proving to be quite a large vein, and gives promise of bringing Winnemucca to the front as a mining camp.

A Lovelock correspondent writes that H. H. Beck was out there last week showing the boys Dr. Hogan's plan for catching wild geese. The Lovelockers say it won't work as the gander, which is generally in the lead, won't stand the hook.

A question is raised as to the legality of the appointment of William Goodman Justice of the Peace of Virginia by the Board of Commissioners, to fill the vacancy created by the death of his father, as he voted in Carson at the last election. As intent determines residence, if the new Justice intends to reside in Storey county he is certainly a citizen of that county.

Henry Rolfe, Chairman of the Board of School Trustees, is in San Francisco. The Chronicle is informed that he was authorized by the Board to employ a Principal for the Virginia School. Poor Nevada! She is dependent upon California for everything, even for the instructors of her youth. It's no wonder that we have to send to our neighboring State for our State officers and United States Senators.

THE INDIAN SNAKE IN ELKO.

J. R. Bradley Thinks There is no Cause for Alarm—Advice From the Independent.

The Independent of Monday has the following on the Indian situation in Elko county: "There is considerable uneasiness among some of the citizens of Star Valley on account of the large gathering of Indians near Death. Yesterday evening Samuel McMullen telegraphed Sheriff Polk from Death, stating that there were about 200 strange Indians among the assembled redskins, that these strangers were rather suspicious in their actions and asking the Sheriff to apply to the Governor for arms. In the absence of the Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff Taber telegraphed Governor Connor, who replied that there were about forty stands of arms available which could be had on requisition, provided it was thought necessary. John R. Bradley, who came down from Death last evening, thinks there is no cause for alarm, and laughs at the idea of anyone expressing fear of an Indian outbreak.

"As heretofore stated, we do not anticipate any danger, still it would be well to keep an eye on the movements of the Indians, and means should at once be taken to disperse the mob gathered at Death. There is no good reason why these messengers from other tribes should be permitted to gather together our peaceable Shoshones and put mischief in their heads by cunning harangues and extravagant promises. Again, merchants throughout the State should positively refuse to sell ammunition or arms of any kind, or in any amount, to Indians, until the present trouble with the Dakota tribes is over. In the meantime the people should take the necessary steps to protect their homes and families in case the Indians of Eastern Nevada should be enjoined into going on the war path. 'An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure,' and the Indians should not be permitted to gather in large assemblies, as they are now doing near Death."

THEATRICAL ATTRACTIONS.

Some of the Engagements Made by Manager Piper.

The Enterprise says John Piper, the veteran theatrical manager who runs the Virginia, Carson and Reno Opera Houses, has dates as follows: Lotta, Virginia, January 24. She desires to cancel her engagement, but Mr. Piper will not agree.

Eunice Goodrich will play at Carson January 26th, 27th and 28th; at Virginia January 29th, 30th and 31st and February 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th; Reno, February 5th, 6th and 7th. This is a popular price affair, presenting comedy and drama.

The Correna Opera Company will appear at Carson February 6th and in Virginia February 7th.

Goodyear, Ellich & Schilling's Minstrels will play in Virginia February 9th and 10th; Carson February 11th and Reno February 12th.

"The Clemenceau Case," with the great undressed, Sybil Johnson, at the head, will hold the boards in Reno February 13th and in Virginia on the 14th. Owing to the proverbial modesty of legislators the company will not play in Carson.

Robert Grismer and Phoebe Davies will play in Reno February 19th; in Virginia February 20th, 21st and 22nd, and in Carson February 23d and 24th.

The Boston Comic Opera Company will play in Virginia for a week, commencing March 2nd, and will appear in Carson March 9th, 10th and 11th; Reno March 12th, 13th and 14th.

Daniel Sully will follow with one night each in Virginia, Carson and Reno.

"A Social Season" will be played in Virginia March 30th; in Carson March 31st, and in Reno April 1st.

W. S. Cleveland's Mastodon Minstrels, headed by Hugh Daugherty and Billy Emerson, will appear in Reno March 30th; in Virginia March 31st, and in Carson April 1st.

THE CON. CAL. & VA. MINE.

The Bullion Yield for December.

The Carson Tribune says the detailed account of the bullion product of the Con. Cal. & Va. mine for the month of December was as follows: Worked at the Eureka mill 7,040 tons of ore. Bullion produced—gold, $46,054 75; silver, $53,977 12; total, $100,031 87; total per ton gold, $6 54 2; silver, $7 68 7; total, $14 20 9. Value of ore per ton, as per battery assay, $18 77 4. Additional bullion from assay office, Virginia City: From bar granulations, $575 53; from fine dust, scraps, etc., $2,895 43; total, $3,471 01; total value, $103,502 88. Shipped to the Carson Mint on the 8th instant, $36,411 25, being the cleanup on December account, making a total of $100,031 87 for the month.

THE INDIAN QUESTION.

J. J. Replies to Agent Warner.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—Referring to the communication from our esteemed Captain, U. C. Warner, I desire to say I made no reference to his pet Indians at all. It is a fact that the Sheriff of Elko county called for arms, and that several hundred well-armed and active bucks have been dancing the "ghost dance" in that county. It is also a fact that there are some thousands of Indians in this State that Captain Warner knows nothing of. There was no intention to create a sensation, but the character of the Indian is well known, and it might result in a great calamity if we sat with folded hands and allowed these things to go unnoticed. We know their treacherous habits, and on more than one occasion they have taken advantage of us when they found an opportunity. It is our opinion that this is the very game they are trying to play on us at Pine Ridge now. J. J.

THE AUCTION.

A Grand Success.

C. W. Booten, of the Opera House Dry Goods Store, has opened out in the building formerly occupied by A. H. Manning, with a general stock of dry goods and clothing, boots, shoes, hats and caps, which he is selling at auction.

The sales will continue until Feb. 1st. All goods are sold without reserve. Matinees at 1 o'clock; regular performance at 7 p. m. Ladies are especially invited to attend these sales as there are a great many articles that are suitable for ladies to purchase, as the General says he is going to close out his entire stock of dress goods.

The Grand Jury.

In the District Court yesterday the following named persons were impaneled as a Grand Jury: C. O. Powning (Foreman), L. D. Folsom, C. Gilling, W. O. H. Martin, H. H. Beck, C. T. Bender, D. W. O'Connor, S. J. Bryant, Thomas Barnett, M. E. Ward, G. W. Sawyer, B. F. Sheldon, George Alt, Dan Huffaker, O. Lonkey, William Merrill and G. W. Mapes. The Jury made a partial report, presenting a true bill against J. C. Bowen for selling whisky to Indians.

The Cobweb Social.

The social given at the residence of Mrs. E. O. Sessions, by the Ladies' Aid Society last evening was largely attended and a very enjoyable affair. The cobweb is a new feature in social entertainments and created much merriment. There was a prize attached to each web, but the peculiar feature of the affair is in finding the end. It was up stairs and down stairs and all over, and a nice little sum was realized by the ladies.

District Court.

In the District Court, yesterday Judge Cheney presiding, in the case of O. J. Backus vs. M. Nathan and George Smith, judgment was ordered to be entered for plaintiff for $500 and costs.

J. C. Bowen, indicted for selling whisky to Indians, pleaded guilty as charged and was ordered to appear for sentence at 10 a. m. to day.

The Carson Tribune of yesterday says Sheriff Botsford arrested John P. Sweeney for violating the 12 o'clock law by keeping his saloon open after 12 o'clock Saturday night. Sweeney gave bonds and was released. The Tribune is informed that Al Livingston has been openly violating the law by running games after midnight.

The United States Senate by the decisive vote of 39 to 27 passed a free coinage bill as a substitute for the fractional bill. It would now be in order for the House to follow the example of the Senate and give the country free coinage, which means more money and prosperity for the people.

Verdi wants a larger school house to accommodate pupils, and Clerk Condon, of the School Board, gives notice of a special election to determine whether a tax shall be levied to enlarge the house and furnish it.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the bowels, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. feb. 21-sw/7

Karshan's patent stove pipe drums are just the thing for this cold weather. They save at least one-fourth of the fuel used, and distribute the heat through the room instead of having it escape through the chimney. They are worth ten times what they cost where fuel is high, and they save the labor of putting wood or coal in the stove where it is cheap. Hume Yerrington has the agency for the coast, and Joseph H. Cowan, who stops at the Clarendon, represents him in this section.
